- 4. The chief of the Wismut office in Dresden is Major Ashkinadze, (sic) an intimate of General Salomonov. The assistant to the chief is a man named Zemitchev, and the chief accountant is a man named Grishin.
- The head of the Berlin office of Wismut, Sethlingerisbasse, 15th Berlingerisbasse, 15th Ber
  - 6. One of the divisions of Wismut is called "Realisierungskontor U.M.T.O." The expression"Realisierungskontor" is said to be a translation from the Russian Kontora Realizatsiya Naryadov, or literally, office for turning work orders into real goods. The head of this office is Theodor Kirpatsch, who has an assistant named Kaulisch and a German named Schäfer under his supervision.
  - 7. There is a German mining engineer called Roch with Wismut in Chemnitz who has the title of technical chief. A German named Platzer is known as office chief there.
  - 8. A new deposit of uranium ore was reportedly found in the neighborhood of Meissen in the middle of June 1949, and it is said that the evacuation of the city and its environs is being considered.

    CLASSIFICATION

STATE NAVYApproved Fig. Release 2005/12/03 CHA-RDP82-00457R003100490007-1